

Brimpsfield Parish Council

Brimpsfield Parish Council regrets that it has decided to postpone the meeting scheduled for next week. This is due to the recent departure of its clerk at short notice. The Council is in the process of putting in place interim arrangements to continue its business while taking action to recruit a replacement clerk.

The Council will make an announcement of its next meeting at the earliest opportunity.

13 August 2026